Dear Students,

21st Century learning is not just about learning knowledge but how to construct it & apply it to life. I am glad to see my Applied Art's creative students construct & apply all they learn in the curricular, co & extra-curricular activities they participate in. I believe that my Students and Faculties are like the missiles, and can sky rocket their aspirations, materialize them & become global citizens.

It is always a matter of pride to extend support to an enthusiastic team of these innovative students and faculty members who are focused to collaborate for the betterment of the Campus. Best wishes to all the students for taking ahead the shared vision.
